

WEDDINGS

JULY seemed destined to slip by with a distinct lack of brides, when suddenly, during the very last week, we have three weddings in rapid succession. One of these was a large and brilliant affair, besides having the distinction of being our first military wedding for some time. Thus the Watrous-Reichmann nuptials only barely saved July from departing without having shown due regard and respect to His Majesty King Cupid.

Watrous-Reichmann Wedding.
One of the loveliest weddings of the summer season took place at noon on Tuesday, when Miss Charlotte Reichmann, daughter of Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Carl Reichmann of Schofield Barracks, became the bride of Lieutenant Livingston Watrous, U. S. A. The ceremony was performed in St. Andrew's Cathedral by the Rt. Rev. Henry Bona Restarick.

The church was most effectively decorated in green and white, enhancing its distinct architectural beauty. In front of the chancel was banked an abundance of fluffy ferns relieved by masses of white asters. On either side of the steps were huge baskets filled with ferns and long-stemmed asters, while from the tall twisted handles flowed misty bows of tulle. Other baskets were placed about artistically while palms made a pretty background. The altar was adorned with two handsome vases each bearing a sheaf of stately white Easter lilies. Directly in front of the chancel, on either side, were draped the stars and stripes and the regimental colors of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, which is Lieutenant Watrous' regiment. The pews reserved for the relatives and intimate friends of the family were roped off with streamers of white satin ribbon, and decorated with a profusion of pure white asters.

Shortly after twelve o'clock, to the opening strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, the bridal party entered the church. It was led down the long aisle by little Betty Naylor and tiny Robert Meals, each carrying dainty baskets filled with white rosebuds. Master Meals looked very cunning in a little Kate Greenaway costume of green and white.

Next came the maid-of-honor, Miss Anne Reichmann, who is the sister of the bride. She was dressed in a stunning creation of white tulle and dotted net. It was made according to the very latest fashion, with a tunic of the silk and a narrow, beffuffed foundation of the net. She carried an armful of exquisite white lilies.

Last on the arm of her father, came the bride looking lovely in an elaborate robe of white silk, chiffon and the most delicate of laces. Her long tulle veil, fitted close about her face and trimmed with orange blossoms, was caught to the end of her train with more of these dainty bridal flowers. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white orchids and roses. Lieutenant Watrous was supported by Lieutenant Joseph A. Marmion as best man while those who acted as ushers were Lieutenant William A. Ganoe, Lieutenant Charles A. Meals, Lieutenant Robert P. Harbold and Lieutenant Oswald H. Saunders of the Twenty-fifth Infantry; Lieutenant John H. Hinemom of the First Infantry and Lieutenant L. A. Beard of the First Field Artillery.

Colonel Reichmann gave his daughter away. Mrs. Reichmann was becomingly gowned in a handsome costume of lavender chiffon and silver lace. To the happy strains of the Mendelssohn march, the bridal party left the church, going at once to the Young Hotel where a delightful wedding breakfast was served. Besides the members of the bridal party, covers were placed at the table for Colonel and Mrs. Lyman W. V. Kennon, Mrs. L. A. Beard, Mrs. Charles A. Meals, Lieutenant and Mrs. Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilder and Bishop and Mrs. Restarick.

Mr. and Mrs. Watrous departed for the coast on the Matsushima Wednesday morning for their honeymoon which will be spent in the states. They expect to return to the islands about the middle of September.

Mrs. Watrous' going-away costume was a modish silk suit of navy blue set off by a chic little French hat. Just before the steamer left her of lavender chiffon and silver lace, hand struck up the wedding march in honor of the bridal couple.

Mrs. Applin's Bridge.

Mrs. Frank D. Applin was hostess at a lovely six-table bridge yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. A. Clark, wife of Captain Clark, who is leaving on the next transport for the coast. The tables were placed on the spacious lanai, where a cool breeze added to the comfort and enjoyment of the afternoon. Quantities of flags from the garrison, artistically arranged, with hibiscus blooms, American Beauty roses and loads of cut flowers of all sorts, transformed the rooms and lanai into veritable bowers of loveliness.

The prizes, which were exquisite Canton china sandwich plates, were won by Mrs. Frederick W. Plisterer, Miss Evans, Mrs. Charles Crane, Miss Shupe, Mrs. Donaldson Sloan and Miss Barrie Gamble. Mrs. Clark was presented with a guest prize and Mrs. G. L. Hicks, Jr. received the consolation, both of which were beautiful laundry bags.

Those present were Mrs. C. A. Clark, Mrs. Norris Statton, Mrs. Frederick W. Plisterer, Mrs. Benjamin H. Watkins, Mrs. G. L. Hicks, Jr., Mrs. McDonald, Miss Evans, Miss Richardson, Mrs. W. E. Mrs. T. H. Brown, Mrs. G. F.

Miss Maxam Complimented.
Miss Hazel Maxam, who has recently returned home from the coast was the motif for a very charming entertainment shortly previous to her departure from San Francisco for Honolulu.

Miss Hazel Maxam, one of the younger set in Honolulu society, was elaborately entertained on Saturday evening, July 11, by Miss May Dermody at the home of her parents at 1631 Bush street. Music and dancing featured the affair. The following were present:

Misses Adelaide Foss, Elizabeth Ross, Len Kellher, Madge Kellher, Eileen Carlson, Eva Conway, Mae Lawton, Rose Carey, Eva Parker, Marion Hennessey, Rita Mullowney, Eileen Hennessey, Loretta Carroll, Catherine Carroll, Patricia Young, Eileen Young, May Dermody, Mesdames J. E. Dermody, P. Brickley, Carey, W. J. Dermody, W. Jones, Messrs Dr. Frank Kane, D. J. McCormick, D. J. O'Hara, H. G. Fish, William Nolan, H. McLean, Henry Sundam, Ray Hennessey, John Madden, John Carlson, John Ross, Thomas Curtin, John Scott, E. Pancoast, William Carey, C. T. Compton, P. J. Brickley, W. Jones, Leo Brickley, W. J. Dermody, J. E. Dermody.

The decorations were in yellow and white, the Hawaiian national colors. Miss Maxam has just completed a course in college and has taken up music and harmony, and has been the recipient of a number of entertainments given in her honor among the younger social set during the past week.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunn Honored.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Hunn were the guests of honor at a large beach party given at the Outrigger Club last evening by a number of their friends. The affair was in the nature of a farewell as these popular people leave for Porto Rico on the first of the week. A jolly swim was enjoyed in the high surf, after which a delicious supper was served on the cool lanai. As is usually the case with these informal beach affairs, everyone had a good time and Mr. and Mrs. Hunn will doubtless retain a pleasant memory of the event long after they have bid Hawaii "good-bye." Even the moon insisted on making herself evident and the scene soft beams down upon the spot.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Hunn, Professor H. J. Webber of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Schmutzler, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. S. de Freest, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gaynor, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas, Mr. Will Thomas, Mr. Frank Woodford, Mrs. R. A. Woodford, Mrs. Sarah Cousins and Mrs. Farmer.

Mrs. Hunn Complimented.

Miss Georgia Armstrong is giving a large beach party at the Outrigger next Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Chester J. Hunn, who is leaving the islands on Tuesday. Miss Armstrong will be assisted by a number of her high school friends and it is expected that the party will be a very jolly affair. There will be about 45 guests present, and a swim, followed by a chowder will be the order of the evening. This will be Mrs. Hunn's last Waikiki beach party for many a day and the gay affairs at the Outrigger will hereafter lack the presence of this popular young woman, who has so often been the life of the parties there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leiter's Dinner-Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter entertained about 30 of their friends in Honolulu at a very enjoyable dinner-dance on board their yacht, the Niagara, last Sunday evening. A prettily decorated table was placed inside the cabin for the younger guests, while the older people dined upon the lovely broad deck of the yacht.

After dinner, dancing was enjoyed. The night was ideal, a soft, cool breeze fluttered the air, and the deck proved an excellent dance floor.

Nails-Case Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place at half past eight on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Andrews, 743 Wylie street, when Miss Carolyn Estelle Case became the bride of Samuel Willis Nails. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. A. A. Eberole.

The decorations were very simple but were, nevertheless, most effective. The rooms were filled with quantities of palms and feathery maidenhair ferns, the solid green making a most attractive background.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a white crepe meteor robe trimmed with shadow lace. She was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Andrews.

Mr. Rupert Matthews acted as best man for Mr. Nails. Mr. and Mrs. Nails have departed on a four weeks' honeymoon and will return about September 1 to make their home in Honolulu.

Informal Bridge.

One of the little two-table bridge clubs which have been meeting during the year, met for the last time on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Barrie Gamble on Wilder avenue. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed at the cards, after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. S. D. Barnes, Mrs. Sara Newcomb, Mrs. Donald Ross, Mrs. H. T. Hayselden, Miss Jordan, Miss Soper, Mrs. Brown and Miss Gamble.

Mrs. Lenihan's Bridge.

Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan, wife of Major Lenihan, was hostess at a very large and delightful bridge party on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson. The rooms were very prettily decorated for the occasion and a most charming afternoon was enjoyed. Later the card enthusiasts were joined by a number of other guests who came in for tea.

Fort Shafter Dance.

A very delightful evening was enjoyed last Monday when the ladies of Fort Shafter entertained in the Officers' Club. This was the first "ladies' night" and the affair was very much of a success. The big hall was attractively decorated and there was an exceptionally large attendance. An orchestra made up of enlisted men rendered excellent music and dancing was enthusiastically indulged in. For those who considered this form of diversion too strenuous, there were cards. Later delicious refreshments were served.

Judging from the popularity of this first venture, the Monday evening affair will become a permanent institution.

Professor Webber Entertained.

Prof. H. J. Webber of the University of California is a visitor in the city and is being considerably entertained by his many friends here. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Hunn at luncheon at the MacDonald on Thursday afternoon. On the evening of the same day, he was the dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Kelley and last evening he was a guest at the farewell supper for the Chester Hunns at the Outrigger Club.

Cuthbertson-Herring Wedding.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's cathedral at five o'clock last Tuesday afternoon when Miss Louise Herring of Brooklyn, New York, became the bride of Mr. Ralph A. Cuthbertson of this city. The ceremony was performed by Canon Ault in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

After the wedding a delightful wedding supper was enjoyed at the Moana hotel. The table was decorated entirely in pink, a large mass of pink carnations and maidenhair ferns making an attractive centerpiece. At each place were tiny lights, almost buried in the center of lovely pink flowers. Covers were placed for the bride and groom, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herring, and Mr. John C. Poole, Mr. R. C. Foster, Mr. Johnson and Mr. H. B. Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson left for a brief honeymoon in the country, after which they will be at home in Honolulu.

The marriage of this couple is the culmination of a romance which had its beginning last winter when Miss Herring, in company with her mother, came down to the islands on a visit. Mr. Cuthbertson was residing at the Anahau hotel and it was here that they first met. Shortly after this Miss Herring returned to her home in New York to prepare for her wedding and again made the long trip to the islands, accompanied by her parents, arriving in time for her marriage on Tuesday.

Mr. Cuthbertson is a member of the Star-Bulletin staff and has been a resident of Honolulu for some time.

Houseparty at Kaneohe.

One of the jolliest houseparties of the week was that which spent four days at the Theodore Richards bungalow at Kaneohe. The young people left last Monday morning, traveling over the Fall in one of the many automobile stages which make this trip. While on windward Oahu, they spent their time swimming, fishing and boating, or whiled away the hours at some interesting game, returning to town again on Thursday. Besides the chaperones, Miss Winterfield and Miss Markay, those who made up the party were: Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Inez Gibson, Miss Madeline Chapin, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Dorothy Winter, Mr. Howard Johnstone, Mr. Jere Smith, Mr. Ralph Grey, Mr. John Warren, Mr. Albert Bush and Mr. Campbell Crozier.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sharp entertained delightfully at their Peninsula home last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin and Mr. Malcolm Franklin, the new collector of customs. It was an out-of-doors party for the most part, which type is most enjoyed at this time of the year. The guests were conveyed by launch to Ford Island where a delicious luncheon was served. After this they boarded the launch again and steamed through Pearl locks. The day was serenely beautiful and the trip was a glorious one. Later, the party motored home.

Those present to enjoy Mr. and Mrs. Sharp's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, Mr. Malcolm Franklin, Judge and Mrs. A. S. Humphreys, Mrs. John F. Melaphy, Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dulsenberg, Miss Sprinks, the Misses Marie and Frances Humphreys, the Misses Alice and Margaret Sharp, the Masters Humphreys and Master Alvin Smith.
